Where our opinions differ

6 min

Main question: "Where do your opinion and mine differ the most?"

Short answer?: "About anything - school, phones, people."

Sharing more?: Don't try to change their mind today. "I hear that you think that" is enough.

Skills practised:

"An invitation to argue removes the need to rebel in order to be heard. The parent gives up a share of power voluntarily - and that's exactly what growing up is built on."
